LOCAL MILLIONAIRES ARE CALLED BY UNITED STATES COMMISSION

Chauncey Keep and Robert T. Lincoln to Be Quizzed by Industrial Relations Body—Uncle Sam Wants to Know About Pullman Co. Wages.

Chauncey Keep, trustee of the Marshall Field estate and lifelong friend of Mr. Marshall Field, has been subpoenaed by the U. S. industrial relations commission as a witness at the hearing to be held in the Hotel Sherman next week. Keep is a member of the board of directors of the Pullman Co. He will be asked about labor unrest and about high profits and low wages paid by the Pullman Co.

Robert T. Lincoln, multi-millionaire son of Abraham Lincoln, civil war president of the United States, was served with a subpoena Saturday at his winter home in Washington, D. C. As chairman of the board of directors of the Pullman Co. Lincoln has more to say than anybody else about the wages, working conditions, security of employment and hopes of decent living among the 6,000 negro porters and 2,000 white men who are conductors on the Pullman cars.

A strange, lonely, shadowy figure—cut off absolutely from the mobs and crowds and common people his father loved to mix with—when Robert T. Lincoln takes the witness stand next week he will be a target of curious eyes. It is years since he made any public speech. Once in a while some college of city celebration of the memory of Abraham Lincoln has been able to get the son to go out and show himself and say a
